ARC APD & APDI Information Session: 12 Dec 2007

Internal Deadline

11 December,
2007

The Pro Vice-Chancellor (Research Operations), Prof Mike Brooks has asked the University's Research Branch to organise an information session for prospective ARC Australian Postdoctoral Fellowship applicants and their supervisors. This session has been planned for Wednesday 12 December 2007 from 12 noon-1pm in Napier LG23.

Professor Barry Brook, Sir Hubert Wilkins Chair of Climate Change and ARC College of Experts Member will speak on what constitutes a strong APD/APDI proposal and processes for assessment. Successful APD and APDI applicants, Dr Pamela Lyon (School of Humanities and Social Sciences) and Dr Russell Brinkworth (School of Molecular and Biomedical Sciences) respectively, will share their experiences in submitting successful proposals.

Staff from the Research Branch will also discuss the application process. A 'flyer' on the information session is attached here. Potential APD & APDI applicants and their supervisors are encouraged to attend the session. Those wishing to attend can RSVP to Leanne Mudge (ph: 8303 5137; email: leanne.mudge@adelaide.edu.au) by 11 December 2007.
