

ANIMAL ETHICS COURSE

INTRODUCTION TO THE USE OF ANIMALS IN SCIENCE – ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS

(Provisional Program)

FRIDAY 2 MARCH 2012, 8:10AM-12PM

CITY WEST CAMPUS, UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH AUSTRALIA,

Room BH2-09, BARBARA HANRAHAN BUILDING,

CNR NORTH TERRACE & FENN PLACE, ADELAIDE

8:10 AM	Registration Desk Opens
8:30	Welcome & Opening Addresses
8:50	Introduction to the Animal Ethics Committee
9:15	Layers of Responsibility. Legislation & Licensing
9:40	The Researcher Perspective
10:05	Break
10:25	Community Attitudes to Animal Use & the role of the Australian and New Zealand Council for the Care and Use of Animals for Scientific purposes (ANZCCART)
10:50	The role of the Animal Welfare Officer
11:10	Monitoring Animal Welfare
11:35	Your Questions
12:00PM	Close of Session

REGISTRATIONS: University of Adelaide Staff and Students Register on-line via the link at:

http://www.adelaide.edu.au/research/researchers/animalwelfare/user_training/#aec_course

PUBLIC TRANSPORT & PARKING: City West tram stop on North Terrace tram route. City Loop bus route 99. UniSA CW Campus is within short walking distance of the Central Railway Station. Public parking is available in the surrounding streets, the Clarendon St Car Park and at the Adelaide Convention Centre Car Park.

CAMPUS MAPS: <http://www.unisa.edu.au/about/campuses/cw.asp>

Conducted by the IMVS/AHS/University of South Australia Animal Ethics Committee and the University of Adelaide Animal Ethics Committee

Version: 9/02/2012