

Indigenous Graduate Opportunities 2012

Join our global team in one of the world's most exciting industries. As the world's leading diversified natural resources company with operations in 25 countries around the world, recruiting, developing and retaining talented graduates is key to our success and future growth.

As a BHP Billiton graduate you will participate in the BHP Billiton Foundations for Graduates Program. Our award-winning, two-year program has been developed specifically for BHP Billiton and is unmatched in the resources industry. Our program has been awarded "Best Graduate Development Program" in Australia for the last three years.

Our graduate program is designed to move you seamlessly from study to work and provides a unique insight into our business. You will develop your decision-making and communication skills, access executive coaching, taking part in intensive residential programs and gain on-the-job experience analyzing and solving real business issues. You will also work with leading experts across world class operations and access the latest technologies and equipment. By the end of the program, you will have developed your technical and critical leadership skills and established long-lasting professional networks that will contribute to your ongoing career journey with us.

We are looking for talented graduates in a variety of degree disciplines to join us in 2012. To be eligible, you must be due to complete your undergraduate degree in 2011 or have completed your undergraduate degree in 2011. A majority of our opportunities are located in various regional locations across Australia.
